

PRIVACY POLICY

Here at The Jericho Foundation we take your privacy seriously. This policy together with our terms of use of any websites/App which you may visit sets out the basis on which any personal information we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed.

1) What Information Do We Hold?

- 1.1 Information that you give us. When filling in forms on our websites, at events we run, corresponding with us by phone, email or letter, it includes information you provide when you complete a Feedback Card, register to use our site, participate in discussion boards or other social media functions on our site, surveys, campaigns and when you report a problem with our site. The information you give us may include your name, postal address, e-mail address, phone number, the church that you attend, financial and credit card information, personal description and/or photographs.
- 1.2 Information we collect about you. With regard to each of your visits to our website we will automatically collect the following information:
 - 1.2.1 Technical information, Details of your visit to the website, and interaction with our email communications, including your IP address.
 - 1.2.2 Information about your visit, including the full Uniform Resource Locators (URL), clickstream to, through and from our site (including date and time), page response times, download errors, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information (such as scrolling, clicks, and mouse-overs), methods used to browse away from the page and any phone number used to call our head office and staff members.
- 1.3 Information we receive from other sources. We may also receive information about you from church partners, other websites that we control, third parties who work closely with us including, for example, business partners, payment and delivery services and search information providers.
- 1.4 If you are a Jericho Foundation employee or volunteer we may also hold certain categories of sensitive information such as personal financial details, age, gender, marital status, date of birth, full employment and educational history, references, religion, medical and criminal records. This will depend upon the role you undertake.

2) How Will We Use Your Information?

- 2.1 To administer our website and for internal operations, including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes
- 2.2 To improve our site to ensure that content is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer
- 2.3 As part of our efforts to keep our sites safe and secure
- 2.4 To measure or understand the effectiveness of advertising we serve to you and others, and to deliver relevant advertising to you
- 2.5 To send you news and information about The Jericho Foundation and it's associated work
- 2.6 To maintain accurate and up to date records of our employees, volunteers and church members

- 2.7 To run Disclosure and Barring Service checks on employees and volunteers in accordance with our safeguarding and employment policies

3) Where Do We Store Your Personal Data?

- 3.1 We are committed to holding your personal information securely. Only The Jericho Foundation staff and volunteers that need to see the data can access it.
- 3.2 We may store your information on computers, in paper form, or both.
- 3.3 All computers that store any personal data are password protected.
- 3.4 Any paper files that hold personal information (other than names and contact details) are kept on secure premises in locked cupboards and filing cabinets.
- 3.5 The data that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”). It will also be processed by staff operating outside the EEA who work for us or for one of our providers. This includes staff engaged in, among other things, the fulfilment of your requests for services. By submitting your personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this privacy policy and in compliance with all relevant UK data protection legislation.
- 3.6 Information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers. Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password that enables you to access certain parts of our site or app, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share a password with anyone.
- 3.7 Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the Internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

4) What Is Our Legal Basis For Processing Your Data?

- 4.1 Our legal basis for processing personal data is different depending upon the purpose it was collected for. The following list covers the main types of data that we hold, for a full list please contact patrick.masih@Jericho.org.uk.
